

Chamarande

GOLD AND PAINTED MINIATURE BANGLE BRACELET . FRANCE. CIRCA 1890

Yellow gold bracelet adorned with emeralds and rubies surrounding an oval medallion representing Queen Louise of Prussia.

Miniature on porcelain after a portrait of Gustav Richter

(Berlin, 1823-1884), painted in 1879 and exhibited at the Wallraf-Richartz Museum in Cologne

Gold 750 ml, 30 emeralds and 26 rubies

French hallmarks

Duchess Louise of Mecklenburg-Strelitz (Luise Auguste Wilhelmine Amalie, 10 March 1776 - 19 July 1810) was Queen consort of Prussia as the wife of King Frederick William III. The couple's happy, though short-lived, marriage produced nine children, including the future monarchs Frederick William IV of Prussia and German Emperor Wilhelm I.

Chamarande

Rue de l'Abbaye 67, B-1050 Brussels, Belgium

T +32 (0)2 649 22 10 | chamarande@brutele.be