

Chamarande

RENAISSANCE REVIVAL BROOCH SAPPHIRE, DIAMOND AND ENAMEL GOLD BROOCH BY GUSTAVE ESPINASSE FOR BOUCHERON

Antique sapphire, diamond and enamel renaissance revival brooch by Boucheron, Paris c.1905, workshop maker's mark of Gustave Espinasse, designed as opposing polychrome basse taille enamel peacock heads with rose-cut diamond collars centred by a step-cut sapphire, in a rose cut diamond border, with pinecone motifs to the corners, suspending a pentagonal fancy-cut diamond mounted in gold.

PROVENANCE

Descendants of the Walters Family of Baltimore and New York

The sapphire measuring approx. 16.75x13.00x6.55mm

The diamond measuring approx. 13.30x10.30x3.35mm

Gold 750 m

French mark and maker's mark (partial)

Gustave Espinasse produced jewellery for Boucheron between 1900 and 1908 in collaboration with designers such as master enameller Lucien Hirtz.

Chamarande

Rue de l'Abbaye 67, B-1050 Brussels, Belgium

T +32 (0)2 649 22 10 | chamarande@brutele.be